

TROTTING RECORD.

It Is Beaten by the Great Stallion Nelson

ON THE TERRA HAUTE TRACK.

Fifteen Thousand People Cheer Them—Horse as the Great Horse Comes Over the Wire—The Time.

THE TERRA HAUTE, Ind., Oct. 10.—Fully 15,000 people cheered themselves hoarse when the great stallion Nelson, now under the wire, and had broken the world's trotting record. The weather was warm and the track was never in better condition. The horse, driven by his owner, C. H. Nelson, rushed under the line quick as unclipped lightning, and was away. He flew past the first quarter in 31 seconds and a half on the wire. He flashed past the half in 1:03.4—a 2:09.1-2 gait, and a tremendous shout went up. The crowd rose as one man and watched the horse as he sped toward the three-quarter post, which he passed in 1:38.1, and the swing into the home stretch. On he came with frictionless motion and passed under the wire in 2:11.4, thus lowering the world's record by a quarter of a second.

Another world's record was broken in the free-hand pace: purse, $1,000. Halpenny in the first heat, made the fastest time ever made, covering the mile in the remarkable time of 2:03.4. Halpenny is owned in Buffalo. He won the race in three straight heats, making the marvelous time of 2:03.4, 2:11 and 2:12. These are the fastest three heats ever made in a race, and the average beats the world's pacing record.

AN EXTRA SESSION OF CONGRESS.

Reported That the President Will Call It for Nov. 11 to Pass the Election Law.

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—A Washington special to The Mail and Express says:

It is stated, on what should be good authority, that President Harrison will call an extra session of Congress on Nov. 11, to consider and pass the Federal election law.

The same authority tells me that before he left the city Senator Aldrich had an interview with the president and during that call President Harrison told the senator that he wanted the bill passed and before the second session began, and it was understood that the extra session would be called.

There will be no trouble in passing the bill in the senate, although the Democrats will endeavor to talk it to death; but should the extra session be called it will not last long, and the Federal election bill will be a law before it adjourns.

The news of an extra session is so surprising at this time that it seems hardly probable, yet inquiry on the senate side of the capitol showed that it is almost an accepted fact there, and that preparations are being made for the convening of the senate early after the November election.

Several of the senators' clerks and a large number of the senators' employees are now working with an idea of an extra session, but still there are many who will not believe the news, although the authority for it is reliable.

It is known that the president has been strongly urged by Republican leaders to call an extra session, and the delay in the matter has been occasioned by consideration of the question of policy involved.

A SMART STOWAWAY.

Robert Wade Crosses the Atlantic Too Times I Fear.

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—Robert Wade, a chubby, brown-faced sea rover, entertained a big audience at the large office yesterday with the yarn of his adventures. Robert is a lad of 16, but he looks as if he were not more than 12. He completed his tenth voyage across the Atlantic from Liverpool on Saturday night on the steamship Emma. At least that is what he says, and he says it in such a frank and earnest way that even the most cynical and yarn-inured marine would be disinclined to doubt him.

"If you don't believe," he added, "go and ask the firemen on the Gallia, the Servia and the Etna."

Robert has been taking passage on these three vessels for the last three years. He usually stowed himself away back of the boilers, and when the ship was about to start he came from his hiding place and cultivated the friendship of the crew. Robert is one of a family of seafaring folk in Liverpool. One of his ten brothers is barkeeper at the Manhattan club, and the rest sail the ocean in one or many kinds of craft. He has two sisters, and Robert shares, with his ten brothers and two sisters, the distinction of being an orphan.

Hot Pursuit of Robbers.

WRIGHT, Kan., Oct. 10.—Last evening H. P. Farmer, a well-known citizen, was held up near his residence by two men. The assailants covered him with revolvers and took from him a gold watch, $50 in money and a gold watch. Farmer bravely entered his house, and securing a revolver went back. He ran the men for half a mile, firing several shots, and as they were entering the timber along the river he fired again, when one of the men cried "I'm hit," but went ahead. Police were soon in the woods, but made no arrests.

Fears of Cholera.

LONDON, Oct. 10.—The Standard's Sofia dispatch says it is officially announced that the czar's wife's reason for not visiting Constantinople is the fear of exposure to cholera infection en route.

CATHOLICS AND THE WORLD'S FAIR.

A Grand Exposition of the Educational Work of the Church.

CHICAGO, Oct. 10.—A movement that may have far-reaching results was formally inaugurated Wednesday evening at the rooms of the Columbus club. The occasion was the meeting of a number of prominent Catholics from various parts of the country, particularly the representatives of Catholic schools, academies and universities. The purpose of the gathering was to take steps toward presenting at the world's fair a complete exhibit of Catholic educational work in the United States.

Right Rev. J. L. Spaulding, of Des Moines, presided. Archbishop Ireland, of St. Paul, made an address, in which he enthusiastically advocated the project. He said the exhibit should be thoroughly American in character and so clearly arranged that world's fair visitors should see it and be attracted by it whether they would or not. The American people, he added, would be keen to discover what was best in educational methods.

Vice President Bryan, of the world's fair directory, in a brief speech, following Archbishop Ireland, on behalf of the board, promised every assistance possible and ample space.

Secretary Dickinson, of the world's fair National commission, sent a letter tendering his services in promoting the exhibit.

After considerable discussion, Rev. E. A. Higgins, of St. Ignace college, Chicago, submitted a carefully drawn outline of procedure.

Bishop Spaulding, Hon. W. J. Onahan and Dr. Maurice F. Egan, of the University of Notre Dame, were appointed a special committee to prepare a circular setting out the plan more in detail. A board of directors, consisting of twenty leading clergymen representing the secular priests and all the Roman Catholic religious orders of the country, was also appointed.

Among those named are the Rev. Father Campbell, provincial of the Jesuits; Father Marshall, of Seton hall; Father Kavanaugh, of the Niagara University; and Father McMillan, of the Redemptorists, brother adjutor of the Christian Brothers, and Bishop Keane, of Washington, D. C.

Among the delegates present were three benedictine abbots. Following the meeting the visitors were given a reception by the members of the Columbus club and a large number of invited guests.

ALL BLUSTER.

John C. New Talks on the Effect of the Tariff Abroad.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—Hon. John C. New, consul general at London, who is in the city for a visit of a few days, in speaking of the feeling abroad over the tariff law says: "There is not so much dissatisfaction over the law in England as there is on the continent. The British merchants are very conservative and straightforward. The new order of things, change of our revenue system, will be irksome to them for a while, but it will not take long for the new machinery to get in smooth running order. There is no loud complaint in England over the McKinley bill.

In Germany and France, however, a good deal of clamor has arisen, but it will soon die out. They want our trade as much to carry out any so-called retaliatory legislation. In any event, we could not along much better without our American cotton, wheat and meats are a necessity across the Atlantic, but congress will go on as usual. The retaliation talked of is all bluster.

Terrible Crime in Ontario.

CEMETERLAND, Ont., Oct. 10.—Mary and Eliza, aged 14 and 12 years, respectively, daughters of James McGonigle, living one and one-half miles from this village, who attended the village school on Tuesday evening last, started for home after school. When last seen they were half a mile from home and were being followed by a man named Narcisse Lorocque. The girls did not reach home, and last night their bodies were found by a searching party. The girls had been outraged and strangled. Lorocque is under arrest.

Rube Burrows' Body.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Oct. 10.—The dead body of Rube Burrows reached here at 3:30 o'clock yesterday morning and was gazed upon by hundreds of eager sight-seers as it lay in the plain pine box enclosing it. It was subsequently taken to Lamar county and delivered to his father at Sulphur station. The old man wept at the sight of his boy's remains, and his sister went into hysterics, saying that he was shot down like a dog. The body was clothed in the same dirty suit he had on when captured.

Filled a Druggist Full of Shot.

ARTHUR, Kan., Oct. 10.—Mrs. Plummer, the wife of a prominent physician of Muscatine, created a sensation last night by filling Dr. J. E. Martin, a druggist, full of shot for selling whiskey to her husband. She was afterward stored and otherwise punished by Martin's clerk. She was arrested, but her husband went her bail. Martin tried to shoot in self-defense, but was too excited to use his weapon. The extent of his injuries is not known.

The Queen Distressed.

LONDON, Oct. 10.—The queen is much distressed by the report of the fatal illness among the grenadier guards at Bermuda. She sent her private secretary, Sir H. F. Ponsonby, to the foreign office twice yesterday to learn the latest news on the subject. Up to the present time, however, Lord Salisbury had received nothing from the island.

Snow in California.

SAN JOSE, Cal., Oct. 9.—Light snow fell at intervals here Wednesday. There has been a heavy fall of snow on Mount Shasta.

AN EXTRA SESSION.

Congress Will Probably Be Called Together.

SENATOR SHERMAN'S VIEWS.

In An Interview He Reveals Many Secrets That Have Hitherto Been Unobserved—Other Events That Took Place at the National Capital.

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—The Sun's Washington special says: A dispatch was received in this city last night from Mansfield, O., saying that Senator Sherman, who is at his home in Mansfield, is of the opinion that an extra session of congress will probably be called. He says that the president is considering the matter seriously, and that the question is still open. The inference from Senator Sherman's remarks is that an extra session, beginning about the middle of November, is possible.

The prevailing opinion in Washington rather tends to discountenance this idea, and it is generally thought that the time to be gained by so late an extra session would not be sufficient to make it worth while to call one. There is also a division of opinion among the Republicans here in regard to the advisability of the proposed action, many thinking that a session called expressly to pass the force bill would be a first-rate campaign card for the Democrats.

WESTERN MOUNTAIN PEAKS.

Report to the Geographical Society Reduces Their Heights.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—President Hubbard, of the National Geographical society, has received a telegram from Maj. Russell and Kerr, who were sent out some months ago to attempt to scale Mt. St. Elias. They have arrived at Seattle on the return trip. The expedition is pronounced successful in a scientific point of view. The summit of Mt. St. Elias was very nearly reached, but the party was driven back by a heavy snowstorm.

The observations of the party give the following approximate elevations: Mt. St. Elias, 13,500 feet; Mt. Cook, 10,500; Mt. Vancouver, 9,000. The area mapped by the party is reported as about 1,000 square miles. The figures given as to the height of the mountains named will be apt to prove both a surprise and a disappointment. Hitherto Mt. St. Elias has been counted the highest mountain in North America, being credited with 19,500 feet elevation above the sea, while this measurement, if correct, will place that peak below the height accorded to several located in Mexico, Colorado, California, British Columbia and Alaska. Mt. Cook also loses position, having heretofore been credited with a height of 16,000 feet.

EASE BALL DEAL.

A Conference Between the Players' and National League.

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 10.—Steps were taken yesterday to bring about a conference between the Players' and National League. It was in a telegram by President McAlpin, of the Players' League, to President McCallin, of the Pittsburgh Players' club, which read as follows:

"Can we have Pittsburg consent to the appointment of a committee of three to confer with a similar committee from the National League looking to a settlement of the present base ball war?"

President McCallin wired: "Pittsburg extends its consent to such a movement." Manager Hanlon last night said the request emanated from the National League and will be allowed through courtesy if for nothing else.

INTERESTING TO MEDICOS.

An Experiment in Vivisection Showing the Movement of a Dog's Heart.

LONDON, Oct. 10.—The opponents of vivisection, The Daily News correspondent at Vienna telegraphs, will be disgusted to hear of an experiment which took place at the hospital Tuesday. A little dog was made insensible, fastened to a board, and when its heart had been laid bare, an instrument called an episcopes was applied, which threw a magnified picture of the dog's heart upon the wall opposite, revealing to the eyes of all present every movement of the heart.

The experiment lasted half an hour. According to the professor, successful demonstration of the movements of the living heart is of the greatest value to students of medicine.

The Catholic Congress.

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 10.—The Catholic congress at Saragosa has adopted a resolution in favor of founding a Catholic Workers' association. The congress has unanimously condemned the principle of liberty of conscience, and has recommended that public teaching be confined solely to the church. Exemption from military duty is demanded for priests preparing for clerical life and members of Catholic societies.

Tram on the Big Four.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Oct. 10.—The Big Four operators, 400 strong, have petitioned for an increase of wages. Unless one or more are made a strike is probable.

Three in one night was the record of the Panhandle by rail freight wrecks. Wednesday night two from Nevada wrecked and one from Colorado wrecked. The freight crew, the total damage amounting $50,000, with no person injured.

Jailed for Highway Robbery.

BIRMINGHAM, Oct. 10.—Charles Bennett was jailed for highway robbery. He had just killed John Worley, of Bristolville, and demanded his money at the point of a revolver.

THE COUNT OF PARIS.

He Will Leave No Doubt as to His Views on the United States and France.

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—The Sun's Washington correspondent telegraphs in reply to an inquiry concerning a report that the French legation had explained to the state department about the official or quasi-official nature of the reception given to the Count of Paris at this city. Mr. Blaine made the following reply: "Not a word has passed between the representative of the French government and myself on this subject, and furthermore, no communication has been sent to the state department about the matter."

The Sun's correspondent continues: "Further investigation at the state department established the fact that it is not customary for the president to deputize any one, except an officer of that department, to receive in an official manner a distinguished visitor in this country. If Collector Erhardt did welcome the count in the name of the president, as alleged, the department officials contend that he did so without authorization. But the weak point, in a diplomatic sense, was the message from the president in reply to the count's telegram to the effect that he would be out of town when the count reached Washington, but would be happy to see him on his return."

This message was probably sent without sufficient consideration, but diplomats insist that it does not compromise this nation in the least, because it can have no official significance unless it emanates from or passes through the state department, and will be noticed that the state department has been perfectly mum in regard to the count from the outset until the present time.

Corn Agent Falls.

PESTH, Oct. 10.—A corn agent in this market has failed, with liabilities of 1,000,000 florins. It is believed that other assignments will follow. The trouble is caused by the sameness of the harvest.

AWAY OUT IN IOWA.

The Presidential Party Going Westward.

WELCOMED AT OTTUMWA.

In His Address the President Congratulates the People of Iowa on Their Prosperity and Sees in His Welcome a Loyalty and Respect to the Country.

OTTUMWA, Iowa, Oct. 10.—It was 8 o'clock yesterday morning when the presidential party reached this city. A delegation headed by Hon. J. G. Hutchinson, ex-Republican legislator for governor of Iowa, and Senator P. G. Ballingall, president of the Ottumwa coal palace, met the presidential party at (Salemburg Wednesday evening and escorted them to Ottumwa.

The train which arrived here yesterday morning contained, besides the president's car, the private car of Superintendent Wilson, of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy road, who acts as the presidential escort over the western lines of this system. It was due to the forethought of Superintendent Wilson and Manager Bishop that a pleasant night's rest was afforded the president by the train being sidetracked at a quiet little station near Ottumwa until daylight. Despite the early hour, almost the entire populace of the thriving young city of Ottumwa turned out to greet the president, and rousing cheers were given him.

He was recognized on the rear platform as the train glided into the city. A moment after the coming of the presidential train, Ottumwa's welcome to the chief executive, and the jubilation of the day was fairly begun. In this city resides the president's oldest sister, Sally, as the wife of T. J. Devins, an old citizen. John B. Harrison, the president's gray-haired older brother, who is in business in Kansas City, met the party here, and from the depot he and Mr. Devins escorted their distinguished relative to the Devins residence, where the family breakfasted together.

It is the intention of the president's brother to accompany the party until Kansas City is reached, when the former will be the guest of his brother. Early in the forenoon the weather became unfavorable and rain began to fall, but it did not seem to dampen the enthusiasm of the Iowans and certainly did not seriously mar the ceremonies of the occasion, which took place under the roof of the Ottumwa coal palace and Iowa industrial exposition. At 10 o'clock President Harrison, under the escort of Hon. Horace Boies, governor of Iowa, and Senator P. G. Ballingall, president of the coal palace, was escorted through the unique building. To the president the coal palace was full of interest and his surprise and admiration was thoroughly evidenced by his numerous inquiries.

At 2 o'clock in the afternoon the public ceremonies of the day took place in the presence of an enthusiastic audience of about 10,000 people. After a few preliminary words of welcome to the president, Hon. H. G. Ballingall, president of the coal palace, introduced Governor Horace Boies, who welcomed President Harrison to the state of Iowa in a neat speech.

After the enthusiasm which greeted the president's appearance had subsided, he responded to Governor Boies' address in a brief speech, thanking the Iowans for their hearty welcome and assuring them of the pleasure it afforded him.

He said he would be inappreciative and indeed ungrateful if he were not moved by the generous and spontaneous welcome which had greeted him in this brief western trip. He saw in the welcome tendered him a loyalty and respect of the great American people for that government of which they were the only sovereigns and which had attained such a high rank in the galaxy of nations. The president congratulated the people of Iowa on the phenomenal progress which they had made as a state in the past decade, and was gratified by the evidence of prosperity, which he observed on every hand.

An Assembly of Notes.

BOSTON, Oct. 10.—A number of deaf mutes assembled in the vestry of the church of the Good Shepherd last night and were addressed in their own language by several prominent mutists in protest against a recently promulgated theory of Professor Alexander Graham Bell. Mr. Bell has declared that the offspring of congenital deaf and dumb parents are almost certain to inherit these defects, and urges congress to pass a law preventing their intermarriage. It had been announced that a debate would take place, but the arguments appeared to be all on one side—that of opposition to Mr. Bell's theory and the assembly was in entire accord with all the speakers.

"Quiet" Plates Unearthed.

MARION, Ind., Oct. 10.—United States Detectives S. A. D. Beck, of Cincinnati, and W. G. Barker, of Louisville, together with Warden William Thompson, of the Ohio penitentiary, arrived in this city Tuesday night with convict Falk, who is serving time for counterfeiting. Wednesday morning he took the officers to a place about two miles above this city and unearthed the plates from which he and the famous Miles Ogle have been counterfeiting. The detectives, together with the prisoner, left for Louisville Wednesday afternoon, where the latter will testify in the United States court against another confederate now held in Louisville.

Strikers Take a Vacation.

SYDNEY, N. S. W., Oct. 10.—The striking air-line workmen yesterday attacked the houses, leaving coal at Bulli, and after dispersing them, occupied the mines. The police were unable to preserve order and reinforcements have been sent to the scene.

EN ROUTE WESTWARD.

A Complete Program Arranged for Tourists to the Pacific Coast.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 10.—Preparations for the inaugural series of personally conducted tours to the Pacific coast, under the auspices of the Pennsylvania railroad, are progressing, and a detailed outline of their scope, routes, rates and conditions will be published at an early day. The special trains of Pullman vestibule sleeping and dining cars will accompany the first work of the Pullman shops. They will run through California on quick time, delivering their passengers at desirable points in the golden state and picking them up at the appointed rendezvous for the return trip. Tourist agents and chaperons of wide experience will conduct the party and minister to their comforts in every possible way.

Particularly favorable concessions will be granted them by the railroads of the Pacific slope, so that their movements may be productive of the fullest pleasure at the lowest cost. These tours are the most ambitious attempts yet projected by the Pennsylvania railroad, specially escorted system to provide pleasure tours of the highest grade. The first tour will leave the east late in January. It will be limited to 100 persons, and those who anticipate an early spring outing to the shores of the Pacific should place themselves in correspondence at once with Mr. J. R. Wood, general passenger agent of the Pennsylvania railroad, Philadelphia.

AN AGED ELOPER.

Because the Lady Would Not Pledge His Fidelity Her Mother Arrested.

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—Mrs. Catherine Schlatter and Mrs. Fredericka Strauss, of No. 157 Moore street, Brooklyn, were arraigned before Justice (Hoating) in the Les avenue police court on the charge of assaulting Harris Weinburg, who lives in the same house. Weinburg is a peddler of snuff, and is 78 years of age. He claimed that Mrs. Schlatter hit him on the head with a vest, and that Mrs. Strauss attempted to choke him. He also declared that the woman robbed him of $90.

In their defense the women claimed that Weinburg wanted a married daughter of Mrs. Schlatter's to elope with him. She refused and Mrs. Schlatter and Mrs. Strauss protested against such talk on the part of the old man. Besides he has a wife in California, they say, and his object is getting warrants for them in revenge because they interfered in his proposed elopement with Mrs. Schlatter's married daughter.

Shot His Wife and Her Companion.

TOLEDO, O., Oct. 10.—Wednesday evening Capt. Mike Enright, a prominent vessel captain, met his wife walking with a man named William Murphy. Enright pulled a revolver and shot Murphy through the mouth. Murphy ran, and Enright sent three bullets into his wife's body, one passing clear through her neck, another in at her back and clear through her body, coming out at the breast, while the third went in under her arm and up to date has not come out. The wife walked home, but will probably die, while Murphy will live, but is badly hurt. Enright coolly rode home on a street car, but was arrested and lodged in jail.

The queen of Rumania is an indefatigable worker and rises every morning before five o'clock. She is firm in her refusal to allow her maid to attend her, but lights her own lamp and sits down at her table to spend an hour or two over her MSS.

The late Emperor Frederick made a large collection of the correspondence of the late Queen Elizabeth of Prussia with the intention of writing a biography of his aunt. His death stopped the work, but the materials remain in excellent order, ready for a capable editor.

Queen Victoria's family circle now numbers fifty living descendants, including sons and daughters, grandsons and granddaughters, great grandsons and great granddaughters. Besides these, she has four sons-in-law, four daughters-in-law, five grandsons-in-law, and one granddaughter-in-law.

NOVELTIES IN SILVER.

Spiral silver dog whistles are a la mode. Silver gilt oyster forks have small pearl handles.

Siphons mounted in silver have been provided for table use.

Spectacle cases in silver have work hang from the hilt like a chatelet.

Silver gilt sugar sifters for fruit preserves have the bowl in the repousse work.

Flasks of colored glass with built-in effects set in silver-plated have been introduced.

A set of silver coffee spoons has each spoon handle tried by a different berry or flower.

Handsome silver spoons that are perfectly plain, except for the ornamental ornament on the bowl.

Glass scent bottles with silver garnishes and other eye-catching ornaments are the demand for chatelets.

Silver vases, suggesting Egyptian motifs, with ornamental tassels from the top in silver-plated enamel, have been introduced.

Silver salt and pepper shakers, in the shape of a vase, with a silver-plated base, have been introduced.

For the highest price silver salt and pepper shakers have been introduced, with a round bowl in the middle which the bottle just fills.

—Mrs. A. C. Court, on south West street, was taken seriously ill Thursday afternoon.

—Mrs. Farley, the photographer, while attending the Mr. Gilead Fair, Thursday, had her pocketbook stolen, containing $4.

—Woman's Relief Corps will hold a called meeting Saturday, Oct. 11th, 2:30 p.m. All members must be present to get ready for Inspector, who will be with us on Wednesday of next week. By order of Pres.,

MARGARET A. BEALE.

—Before the Chicago and Erie company purchased the Chicago and Atlantic the latter had an agreement with the Wabash whereby it used the portion of the Erie tracks between Hammond and Laketon Junction. The Chicago and Erie people Wednesday filed a complaint in the federal court setting forth that the contract became invalid when the purchase was made and asking that the Wabash be restrained from running trains over their tracks.

A YOUNG TRAVELER

Drifts into Marion Because He Heard It was a Good Town.

Oliver McCoy, a little fellow 12 years of age, arrived in the city Thursday evening from Winchester, Ind., and is about town looking for work. The boy says his father and mother are both dead and that his only near relative is a brother, from whom he expects nothing. He is a bright, intelligent little fellow, and exhibits considerable nerve in his efforts to secure a position, but it is not with the manner that would distinguish him as a hard youth. He says he can do work around a house and care for a horse. He was around the Mayor's office today, with the hope that somebody would help him to a job, and he does not want to return to Indiana. When asked why he headed for Marion, he said he had always heard that Marion was a great town and wanted to see it. The boy has made friends, who want to see him get work.

—Fresh oysters received daily. 27s 12 Moore & Decker.

wood. We lose a valuable pastor. Rev. Little of Kenton circuit, succeeds him here, and comes well recommended.

The Ladies of the Relief Corps attended a convention at Kenton Wednesday.

Todd Beach, of Forest, is visiting Mrs. and Mr. Ames Ward this week.

Mr. Prettyman's sale was not well attended. The horses were not offered for sale. What did sell brought good prices.

E. D. Horton was at Forest visiting his mother the forepart of the week.

Dr. H. P. Fleaster was called to Scott Town Thursday to assist Dr. Briggs in a surgical operation on Mrs. Joseph Kennell, of that place.

The county candidate is not bothering us a great deal just now. Mr. Beale is going to make a good man.

Eli

Lakeus.

Tom Prettman is engaged this week in moving the Riley school house, to the lot provided for it just opposite the residence of Mac Vanden, about one mile east of where it formerly stood.

Mrs. Tanner, a resident of Bowling Green, died at her home Sunday afternoon. Her funeral was preached Tuesday, by Rev. Crabtree, at the Fairview church.

Attorney G. E. Mouser, of Marion, is home on a few days visit.

W. R. Morris starts next week for Kansas where he expects to remain several weeks visiting his son.

A. F. Marsh succeeded in carrying home several premiums on his fine blooded stock, at the fair, last week.

Latic and vicinity, were exceedingly well represented at the fair, notwithstanding the rainy weather.

Preparations are being made for the construction of a new brick school building on the recently purchased ground near the C. and E. railroad, north of town, at an estimated cost of $1200.

The W. R. C. attended the Convention at Kenton, Wednesday.

Mrs. Sadner and Mrs. J. M. Waples returned home last week from an extended visit in Medina county.

Miss Hattie Stanchit is visiting in Lima.

Mr. T. H. B. Beale, of Marion, republican candidate for probate judge, was here this week getting acquainted with the people.

It has been the custom with the better class of voters, in this part of the county for several years past to recognize no party lines in the choice of county officers, when the nominations made by the different political parties were in part unsatisfactory. The nomination of Mr. Beale for probate judge is highly satisfactory to the voters here, regardless of party, and his candidacy will receive a hearty endorsement at the polls in November.

Oct. 8. G. C.

Clinton-Adelaide.

Michael Shemey met with a painful accident Wednesday evening. While attending the stock, one of his cattle became unruly and in attempting to pass him he tried to head it off and fell, dislocating his shoulder.

E. Ulom, of Crescent City, Ill., is visiting relatives and friends in our village. He was at one time connected with the Ulom tin factory. We bid him a hearty welcome.

On Tuesday night our little town was considerably diverted by a runaway—that of one or two boys who were quietly making a run on a mule patch. A loud report of a gun was heard, one man falls quivering, and Jesse —, oh how he ran!

Dr. A. Rhu, of Marion, was called on last Tuesday to consult with Dr. Britton in the case of Rev. Owen, of this place, who has been quite poorly for some time.

Freeman Owen, of Kenton, O., is visiting his brother, James Owen.

We are sorry to say that Henry Garvin is very low.

John Leonard, Jr., and family, of Marion, were in our village Sunday.

John Harroff, of Auglaize county, a brother of Henry Harroff, was calling upon old acquaintances here Saturday.

John Weiss has returned from his visit in Newark, O. He brought a ferret home with him.

Mr. and Mrs. Talmage of Mt. Gilead, O., were guests of Jacob Hower and family Friday night and Saturday.

Miss Annie Leonard is improving slowly.

S. C. Mitchell is better than he was at his last writing.

James Ulom has purchased William Mitchell's property for $200.

There were quite a number of exhibitors from our neighborhood at the Fair, and they seemed to be pretty well satisfied with the decisions.

J. W. Haldeman and son Grant, of Morrow county, visited L. O. Ruhlman over Sunday.

Harry Bolan has been appointed sexton of the M. E. church for the ensuing year.

A wild animal visited our town Sunday night last, and the visitation was the cause of one young man staying in town all night.

Oct. 9. Z.

Howling Green.

The corn is nearly all in shock.

Public sale bills are all the go on the cross roads guide boards.

George Deissaver had a horse to drop dead while harvesting last week.

Curly Vansickle and George Jakaway started for the Hardin county pond last Tuesday.

Nettie Bonner is under the care of the doctor at present.

George Deitch for commissioner is the feeling in Howling Green. Watch for the count out this fall.

Miss Price, of Nevada, O., is visiting acquaintances in this locality at present.

Miss Blanch Tanner has given up her school owing to sickness, she being prostrated with typhoid fever.

Lafayette Holt is very busy making sorghum both day and night.

Carrie D. Gates, of Marion, sold to Mr. Owen 75 acres of land in the western part of Howling Green for $2000. Mr. Owen wishes to lease it as he lives in Richland tp. and can not oversee it.

Some kind, who was not quite two years old, died last Thursday and was interred in Fairview cemetery on the following Friday.

Sam Trep, of Epsville, commenced a job plastering in our township, by the day. After one week's faithful work he made a strike on wages. Joe Whips, of Agosta, comes the work.

Tom McNeel sold 21 head of sheep for $200 last Monday. The McKinley bill will make some money.

Miss Luma L. Luman is attending school in Hardin county at present, will continue in her own district school commencing.

We have an abundance of fall pasture at present which helps wonderfully but does not let out loads.

Several loads of corn in Howling Green will not be shocked as there would not be a wagon load of the entire fields of tender and corn.

Oct. 4. **

DeChiff.

Several changes in real estate this week. Elmer Drake will move to town next week.

Art Lodge has moved back to Mud Sock. Tom Charles has become a partner with Scott Lhoads in the saw mill business.

Our people say the Fair was immense if it did rain two days.

Aaron Sharp has sold his property to D. H. Clifton, and will move to Marion.

The musical party given at Mrs. McWilliam's Thursday was a grand success.

Prof. Davenport, the celebrated ventriloquist, is billed at DeChiff Monday and Tuesday night, next.

Rev. Wm. Browning, of Kingston Centre, Ohio, was at DeChiff Monday on business.

The father and mother of Lee Eger returned home to Indiana Monday, after an extended visit in this vicinity.

D. H. Clifton made a flying trip to Akron, Ohio, Monday, returning the same day.

Elmer Drake is very proud of that new boy baby that arrived at his house the other night.

We see by the press that Rev. Scott, of Agosta, has been transferred to the Richmond circuit. DeChiff people, one and all, would have liked his return to the Agosta charge.

We are very glad to note that the corn in this neighborhood is going to turn out better than at first expected by the farmers.

There should not be any trading of votes at the county this fall in favor of Charles Foster. Charley can amply take care of himself and will do so before the election takes place. The republicans have a chance on probate judge and they should grip it.

D. H. Clifton has stored in his barns $12,000 worth of wool, and has been waiting for the McKinley bill to pass the senate before offering it for sale. The bill has now passed and the result is well known to Mr. Clifton. It made him $500 last week. Eastern houses are after his wool hot and heavy and two Philadelphia firms sent men to buy it last week.

Oct. 8. JOE SPIKES.

STRAY BITS.

The first game of cricket was played in London in 1774.

There are always in the neighborhood of 3,500,000 people on the seas of the world.

The total annual home consumption of opium in China has lately been reckoned to be about $41,800,000.

The American missionaries in Japan, it appears, are introducing the game of baseball with exceptional success.

The inexhaustible supply of mineral paint has been discovered in the Tepeste mountains of Lower California.

Roller skates were first patented by a London fruiterer named Tyers in 1823 and his pattern had one line of wheels.

In 1826 the public schools of Boston cost $15.18 per scholar, but for the current year the expense is expected to reach $28.42 for each pupil.

It is said that the postmen of London walk, together, something like 48,300 miles per day, a distance equal to twice the circumference of the globe.

It is expected that the number of bodies cremated in Milan will soon average one a day, as nearly 2,000 bodies have been cremated there during the last thirteen years.

A simple cough remedy is made of an ounce of flaxseed boiled in a pint of water, a little honey added, an ounce of rock candy and the juice of three lemons, the whole mixed and boiled well.

What is probably the largest rosebush in the world grows alongside the residence of Dr. E. B. Matthews in Mobile, Ala. It was planted in 1813, and now covers the entire house and the neighboring trees.

A New Haven gentleman has a couple of tame wasps. They have built a nest in his parlor and live undisturbed and undisturbed. This is the third season the insects have occupied the same quarters.

A mammoth loaf of bread, two feet square and one foot thick, weighing fifty pounds, was received recently at the White House. It came as a gift to the president from a yeast manufacturer and a baker.

A German watch recently on exhibition in a Pittsburgh window is probably the thinnest timepiece in the world. It is not more than an eighth of an inch thick, and the works themselves seem no thicker than cardboard.

Measurements of 21,000 children in Saxony show that the boys are a small fraction of an inch taller than the girls up to the 11th year, but that the girls then become taller until the 16th year, when the boys again surpass the girls in height.

Misunderstood.

Impre-ario—Do you sing chest-notes? Signora Hortensio—No, sir! Everything in my registry is dead now.—Judge.
